There will be a place to store your original pack plus any extra items you choose to leave behind for the summer. If you can't get it all in that... then you've got too much! You will be able to wash clothes regularly.
- If you are required to bring specific equipment or asked to bring personal items for supervisor, these can be packed in a 2nd piece of checked luggage. Good idea to pack these as a team after arriving at orientation.

Guidelines for clothing

- On-campus/class clothes- You will be on a campus with 90% “cousins.” While you do not have to dress like them, you must dress more conservatively than you might be used to. You will also need to look relatively “put together” since you will be going to class. Think college campus not tropical rainforest (even though campus is close to a rainforest). You must always cover your entire legs in public areas. You can wear nice jeans, colored pants, or ankle length skirts. Do not bring any sleeveless shirts to wear outside your room. Nicer short sleeve shirts are ok but $\frac{3}{4}$ length would be better. None of your shirts should have a low neckline. Girls like to dress up on campus so prepare to look somewhat professional. We can also go shopping here if we need to since it is hard to find modest clothes that are also good for hot weather ☺
- Casual clothes- very lightweight athletic pants and dry fit shirts/cotton t-shirts will be best for lounging around in an “all girls” setting. These clothes can also be used for sports.
- Swimming clothes – if you have an opportunity to swim, your friends will likely wear clothes or a full body “burkini” while swimming. Bring athletic clothes that are dark and wouldn’t be revealing when wet. Think river baptism or something like that. Additionally, you may have the opportunity to go full tourist in an area away from your campus. Bring a conservative swimsuit for this as well.
- Shoes – Bring one pair of casual flip flops, comfortable tennis/running shoes for exercise, sports, and outings, at least 1 pair of nicer sandals or closed toed shoes for class.
- Sports/exercise clothes – girls here will be wearing loose long pants (no tights or yoga pants) and long sleeve dry fit shirts to exercise and play sports. You should be able to get clothes like this from Target/Walmart for a reasonable price. The more conservatively you dress the less unwanted attention you will get when you are playing sports and exercising.
